

Lawn Tractors

100 SERIES

100 Series tractors are built to compete with Chain Store Lawn Tractor Brands such as Toro, Cub Cadet, Murray, Sears, Husqvarana, and Troy-Bilt. The Difference – these tractors are built by John Deere, the company synonymous with tractors. With features like welded frames, cast-iron front axles, and other John Deere Exclusive features, you can easily see why these tractors are a cut above the competition. Designed with value in mind, 100 Series tractors offer engine and deck combinations at very attractive prices. These are the same tractors sold at Home Depot and Lowes at the same price. All Units are backed by a 2-Year/ 120 Hour Warranty. Setup & Delivery Charge of $69 applies to all units.
