Brian Fillmore Joins the Team at Power Place

Rockaway, New Jersey - Power Place, one of New Jersey's leading Lawn & Garden Equipment retailers is pleased to announce the hiring of Brian Fillmore to our sales staff. Gus Ottoson, president of Power Place states, "My experience working with Brian in the past both as a vendor representative and as a colleague assures me that his addition is an important step towards growing our business in Northern New Jersey."

Fillmore joins Power Place with over 10 years of sales experience to the green and construction industries. He previously worked as a Territory Manager both for Kimber's, Inc., a commercial power equipment wholesale distributor in Syracuse, New York and more recently Jesco, Inc., a John Deere Construction & Forestry dealer in South Plainfield, New Jersey. He will be responsible for John Deere equipment sales to commercial contractors and government agencies in Northern New Jersey. "I am excited about this opportunity to bring my knowledge and reputation in the equipment industry to an organization like Power Place," states Fillmore.

Power Place is a leading retailer of Lawn & Garden Equipment, Utility Vehicles and Compact Tractors to consumers, commercial contractors and government agencies in Northern New Jersey. Family owned and operated since 1983, Power Place continues to serve its customers by providing expert advice, excellent customer service and sells only the best in outdoor power equipment. In addition to the complete Commercial & Consumer John Deere product line, Power Place also retails select Toro, Stihl and Redmax products.
